Each session is also entitled to one early-bird 'group leader' membership price of $170, to recognise this person's role in looking after a key, organising trials of new members, and disseminating information.

Please note that playgroup is by default an annual commitment (1 February - 31 January 2024). All admin work is performed by parents to young children who volunteer their time, therefore refunds will only be made available in extreme circumstances. If you would like to change session times at any time during the year, please contact ycpgenresolments@hotmail.com. New members are welcome at any time during the year, according to the pro-rata fee structure above.

All fees Jan-Oct include a $35 insurance premium, which is sent to PlaygroupWA on your behalf. This covers you and your family while in attendance at our centre during your allocated session. From 1 November onward, fees include a $15 insurance premium. If you are attending playgroup and your payment has not been received, you are not covered under Playgroup WA insurance.

The fees for second or subsequent sessions are half-price. Please deduct the $35 PGWA insurance premium first, and then halve the resulting fee.
